WILSON DECLARES ITALY CANNOT HAVE FIUME PREMIER ORLANDO READY TO RETURN TO ITALY

GRAVE SITUATION BRINGS STATEMENT FROM PRESIDENT WILSON WHO INSISTS EVERY CONDITION CONCERNING ADRIATIC SETTLEMENT HAS CHANGED AS RESULT OF THE DISINTEGRATION OF AUSTRO-HUNGARY.

SAYS AUSTRIAN MENACE IS AT END

POINTS OUT THAT FIUME ONLY NATURAL OUTLET TO SEA FOR NEWLY FORMED STATES AND THAT ITALY'S CLAIM TO DALMATIAN ISLANDS NO LONGER A VOID ONE ONE—ORLANDO TO LEAVE CONFERENCE.—ORLANDO TO LEAVE CONFERENCE.

PARIS, APRIL 23.—(Associated Press)—In a statement issued by President Wilson today explaining his position on the Adriatic question he declared Fiume cannot become part of Italy.

The President pointed out that every condition concerning the Adriatic settlement has been changed since Italy entered the war upon the promises of the pact of London, the Austro-Hungarian Empire having disappeared.

He notes that new states have been created for which Fiume is the only natural outlet to the sea.

He also contends the strategic necessity pleaded in behalf of Italy's claim to the Dalmatian islands no longer prevails as the Austrian naval menace has ceased to exist.

ITALIAN PREMIER THREATENS TO LEAVE

PARIS, APRIL 23.—(Associated Press)—Premier Orlando threatens to return to Italy today unless there is a satisfactory announcement of the Fiume and Dalmatian questions.

Premier Lloyd George is trying to persuade the Italian leader to remain in Paris longer while he continues his efforts to reconcile the opposing viewpoints.

Premier Lloyd George has tried, so far unsuccessfully, to reconcile the viewpoints of President Wilson and Premier Orlando.

(By Associated Press)

The Italian delegation to the peace conference, according to Paris dispatches, reasserted today its determination to stand firm on the question of Fiume, indicating that unless the council changed its position the delegation would not return to the conference.

An early settlement of the difficulty is thought to be improbable, especially as President Wilson is understood to be equally as firm as the Italian representatives.

With Premier Orlando still absent, Premiers Clemenceau and Lloyd George and President Wilson resumed today the consideration of questions concerning China and Japan.

The Italian delegation seems to be showing a slight disposition to recede from its extreme attitude. Reports from Paris indicate a willingness to listen to suggestions of a compromise.

Italy, it is said, has offered to give up all claims to the Dalmatian Hinterland if given Fiume, the Dalmatian coast and the coastal watershed.

On the other hand she has requested offers of Fiume in return for relinquishing any claims she may have on the Dalmatian coast.

Rival claims of China and Japan to Kiao Chau and the Shantung peninsula have not been settled and if the Chinese and Japanese governments consent it seems probable these claims will be left to be taken up by the League of Nations.

It seems to be established that the Soviet government of Hungary has actually crumbled but the situation is still obscure.

OMSK REGIME OPPOSES PLAN

(By Associated Press)

Archangel, April 23.—Opposition by officials of the government of North Russia to the plan of feeding Bolshevik Russia, as recently made public in Paris, is based not only on unwillingness to provision territory occupied by forces of a government the North Russians are fighting, but because they believe the plan would not be efficacious in combatting Bolshevism.

AMERICAN FOOD AND CLOTHING SAVE THOUSANDS OF RUMANIANS

(By Mail)

Bucharest, March 19.—(By Mail)—American flour and clothing are saving the lives of thousands of destitute people throughout Rumania. The United States Food Administration has already brought into the country nearly 20,000 tons of flour, while the American Red Cross, which has a large mission established here, is distributing clothing and general relief supplies of all kinds among the needy population.

The flour from America arrived at a time when conditions were at their worst and when local supplies for the Rumanian people were almost exhausted. It was feared that the want of food would result in a state of Bolshevism and revolution. This American flour has been a tremendous factor in preventing the unrest. From its relief stations established at Bucharest, Jassy, Constanza, Galatz, Focșani and Pitesti, the American Red Cross is distributing its supplies and in every important village an American Red Cross soup kitchen is helping to feed the population.

Queen Marie, who has taken the greatest interest in this relief work, has assigned Prince Carol to co-operate with the American Red Cross. Colonel Henry Anderson, Red Cross commissioner to the Balkans, said today that three large consignments of relief supplies had already arrived in Rumania and that the fourth was already on its way from Toulon, so that the American Red Cross would soon be able to care for every destitute person in Rumania.

Size of Quota in Ohio is to be Increased

(By Associated Press) Columbus, O., April 23.—Ohio's national guard which became a thing of the past when the Ohio troops were mustered into the Federal service, is to be reorganized almost immediately along lines specified by the War Department, according to information available today at the Adjutant General's office.

It was said at the state house that former national guardsmen who saw service in Europe with the Thirty-seventh division undoubtedly would be given preference in the organization of two infantry regiments authorized.

State officials believe as soon as Congress passes finance legislation the War Department will authorize a larger personnel for Ohio.

LARGE AUDIENCE GREETS SOLDIERS IN VICTORY DRIVE

Good Hope Citizens Show Marked Patriotism At Big Meeting Last Night.

Returned Soldiers Relate Experiences and Local Speakers Present Cause.

The M. E. Church was packed to its utmost capacity, Tuesday night, for the Victory Loan meeting, and patriotism and enthusiasm ran high throughout the evening.

The large delegation of uniformed soldiers, members of the Victory Loan Committee and other citizens were accompanied by the Washington Band and the Washington High School Glee Clubs, the band playing a number of selections on the streets of Good Hope prior to the meeting, and then, because of the crowded condition of the church, did not enter the church.

The work of the Glee Clubs was roundly applauded and added much to the interest in the meeting. The soldiers were given a hearty reception, and the remarks of Tank Driver Robert Lanum and Lieut. Leroy Martin, of the British Foreign Legion made a most profound impression upon the large audience.

Some of the thrills of tank fighting were set forth by Lanum and various phases of the bitter fighting experienced by Martin were mentioned briefly.

Hon. J. D. Post presided over the meeting, delivering a brief address, while the chief address of the evening was delivered by Hon. C. A. Reid, who set forth the necessity of finishing the job by seeing that Fayette county goes over the top in absorbing her full quota of the Victory Loan bonds.

The next big meeting will be held in this city on April 30th, and it is expected that thousands of persons will attend this meeting and see the returned soldiers parade, here the noted speakers and music.

THRILLING DRAMA AT PALACE THEATER

The Palace Theater was crowded at both shows Tuesday night, when Florence Reed, well known actress and film star, appeared in her thrilling drama: "Her Code of Honor," the first of a series of six superpictures in which Miss Reed is starring for United Picture Theaters, Inc. The last showing of this play is tonight.

"Her Code of Honor" pictures a thrilling story of artist life in the Latin Quarter, Paris. The scene then shifting to New York, the plot runs swiftly through momentous situations, and holds, it is said, the audience in suspense as to the ultimate outcome until the final scene.

With this dual role, that of the struggling young artist in Paris and then as the well-to-do American girl in New York, Miss Reed is said to offer the most powerful work of her screen career, and in fact that talented star is reported to have said of Her Code of Honor that it is the best picture she has ever made.

MAY BE LAST WINE BAPTISM

Washington, April 23.—Announcement has been made at the navy department that the superdreadnaught Tennessee would be launched at the New York navy yards on April 30, probably with acting Secretary Roosevelt, Governor Roberts of Tennessee and Governor Smith of New York present.

The Tennessee may be the last American battleship to be christened with wine, as no others will be launched before nation-wide prohibition becomes effective July 1. Acting Secretary Roosevelt said today, however, that the question of the beverage to be used at future christenings had not yet been considered by the department.

FAMOUS BEACON IS THREATENED

Toms River, N. J., April 23.—The famous light house at Barnegat Inlet is in danger of being undermined by the Atlantic ocean, engineers report. During the recent heavy storms the sea encroached to within seventy-five feet of the lighthouse.

The terrific current at the inlet, backed by a powerful sea has cut into the beach for a considerable distance, unless break waters or jetties are constructed, the lighthouse surely will go down in a heavy storm, engineers say.

MARINE LOSSES ABOUT 5200

(By Associated Press)

Washington, April 23.—Of the 8000 officers and men composing the marine brigade when it and other units of the second division were thrown into the fighting near Chateau Thierry last June 5, to stop the German thrust at Paris, 126 officers and 5073 men either were killed or wounded before the brigade was relieved at the end of the month. While in this action the marines took Lucy-le-Boeuf, cleaned up Belleau

Wood, and finally captured the important town of Bourges.

In disclosing these casualties Major General Barnett, commandant of the marine corps, said published statements from army officers that the marines were not in the fighting at Chateau Thierry were misleading. The marines, he said, were not actually in the town itself, but fought in the Chateau Thierry sector in the action known officially as the battle of Chateau Thierry.

Signs of Awakening

That Russia—the real Russia of the Russian people—is making progress toward recovery is evidenced by the request of the Russian embassy in Washington that the anti-Bolshevist powers be recognized by this nation.

In the wholesale desertion of soldiers from the "Red" armies is to be found another reliable bit of proof that the Russian people are beginning to awake from their stupor and showing signs of recovery from their wild debauch.

The first unmistakable signs of the disintegration of the great German military machine was given in the desertions of Hun soldiers. Desertions from any army always indicate that the structure is rotting away at the foundation.

The reign of terror in Russia has kept thousands of peasants in the army through fear of losing their own life, or through fear of the wrath that would be visited on their loved ones.

The great powers will doubtless officially recognize the first anti-Bolshevist regime in Russia that can give any substantial assurance of being able to sustain itself. And yet, when one considers, it doesn't really seem necessary to delay that recognition until some substantial progress toward recovering the country from the terrorists is made. It is not a conflict between two warring regimes—a civil war—the conclusion of which would leave the victor worthy of recognition. The conflict in Russia is between civilization and a regime which can never, under any circumstances, be recognized.

Perhaps, too, recognition might add strength to the struggling anti-Bolshevist faction.

Recognition, could do no harm and might do great good.

The Flicker

Among the birds, cataloged as song birds, according to the protective legislation of Ohio, are the American Flickers.

There is no more handsome bird hereabouts than this same independent, saucy flicker. With his coat of brown and black, yellow breast, dull gray head and neck, with the ring of bright scarlet about his throat the flicker, larger than his fellow song birds makes an attractive appearance.

Close observers tell us, however, that he is a destructive fellow, and that with his long bill, bullet-shaped head and muscular neck he is responsible for the death of a great many trees. Some tree trunks, upon examination, will be found so full of holes drilled by this peculiar bird that they look like a sieve. With the sap drawn out and the air let in through the holes the death of the tree is a matter of time only.

While the correctness of the classification of the flicker as a song bird might be challenged by those inclined to be too exact, yet he is a member of the bird chorus—he is the snare drummer.

Not gifted with the ability to sing attractively the flicker entertains his mate, courts his affinity, takes part in the morning overture in birdland by drumming on a hollow stump or an old tin waterspout. And he gets by with his music and his good looks so well that, even knowing his destructiveness, people are friendly to him.

The flicker is a character among the bird folks—he is out of the ordinary and we all like something distinctive.

One Who Died at Dawn Forgotten

All England will do homage to the brave nurse, Edith Cavell, shot by the German soldiery at Brussels in 1915, when her remains are brought to historic Westminster Abbey for a ceremonial service next month. Later they will be given a national funeral and burial at her old home in Norwich. National, too, will be the memorial shaft to be reared in London. All these marks of honor are due her ashes.

Strange, though, is the obliteration of the name of the brave man who died at her elbow that gray dawn with his back to the prison wall. He was an architect, an artist, if you please, whose life had been devoted to the beautiful even as Miss Cavell's had been given to relieving pain and suffering. His offense was identical with hers. He had assisted Englishmen to escape to their native land. Condemned to die, no one pleaded magnificently for his life. No Spanish Marquis Villalobos said with a grandiloquent gesture to brutal German authority: "But he is an architect!" as he had cried: "But it is a woman, Your Excellency!"

The summons to face the firing squad in the fatal watches of the morning came to him at the same moment as to Miss Cavell, and he went bravely with her, side by side, to the place of supreme sacrifice, the same volley hurling both into eternity. Yet the world takes no notice of his fate. Is it because men and women seize upon the sex of his companion in order to emphasize their detestation of the Hunnish cruelty, or is it because men are expected to die as a matter of course in time of war?—Cincinnati Enquirer.

POETRY FOR TODAY

ALWAYS WEARS IT

Though the day be sad and weary,
And the way seem long and dreary,
It never will be better if we fret
For upon the inside lining
Be sure the sun is shining.
So give a smile and with a smile be met.

Keep smiling, that's the motto
In every fairy grotto.
And for us mortals it is well worth while;
Our troubles they will scatter,
What e'er may be the matter.
If we only meet them bravely with a smile.

Our neighbor has his trouble,
Of perhaps ours more than double,
So we never should go round with faces long;
But with head erect and steady,
And a smile that's ever ready,
We should go about our business with a song.

We can always make life dreary,
We can alway make it cheery—
It depends upon each of us when we meet;
So let us all keep smiling,
Though our troubles may be piling,
It will help to make our journey much more sweet.

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitutes for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

News of Interest to Women

The Annual Inspection of Fayette Council No. 100 passed off most successfully at the Masonic Temple Tuesday night, introduced by a brilliant banquet served by the women of the Eastern Star.

There were seventy-five in attendance, including Council Masons from Mt. Sterling, Jeffersonville, Greenfield and near by towns.

Grand Conductor of Council Edward Rector, of Williamsport, was inspecting officer and warmly approved the splendid work put on under the direction of Thrice Illustrious Master P. M. Cook, and the corps of officers.

The women of Royal Chapter No. 29, who are serving a series of banquets in connection with Masonic affairs, in the second one of last evening established anew the prestige of the first banquet served several weeks ago, and proved themselves experts in the preparing and serving of a perfect banquet.

The tables were beautiful, arranged to form the emblematic triangle, and a riot of artistic color blend, hyacinths, tulips, narcissi and Easter's choicest blossoms in vigorous bloom, with a quantity of spirea and greenery employed.

The women who served all wore white, which added to the effect.

The courses were quite elaborate and the Masons found the banquet hour a most delightful prelude to the lodge session.

The Degree Staff and Team of the Daughters of America comprising twenty-six women, met at the home of Mrs. Walter Girard on South Fayette street, Tuesday evening, to discuss plans for the district convention to be held in June.

A delightful social hour with refreshments followed the business.

The Women's Relief Corps is departing from the usual monthly Kensington and giving a masquerade this evening at Memorial Hall.

The members and friends fortunate enough to receive invitations are anticipating a jolly good time and all the novelty of the marked affair.

A wedding of unusual interest in the New Holland neighborhood owing both to the prominence of the families and the unusual popularity of the young bride and bride-groom, took place Tuesday noon, when Marion Timmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Timmons, and Mr. Dudley Roth, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Roth, were united in marriage.

The ceremony was performed at the M. E. parsonage in Circleville.

The bride, a charming girl and a very pretty blonde, was wearing a modish tailored suit of navy blue tricotine, with hat, georgette blouse and gloves ensue.

The young couple left for a wed-ding trip before announcing their future plans. The bride-groom is a wealthy young farmer, who has been extensively engaged in agriculture and stock raising since finishing his education.

The announcement of the marriage will be followed by good wishes from a host of friends, including many from Circleville, the earlier home of the Roths, and this city.

A stag affair of Tuesday night, al-together impromptu, was a fish sup-per, at which Mr. Henry Brownell entertained a dozen congenial spirits enroute home from the Good Hope Victory Loan Meeting.

"Somewhere, somehow," Mr. Brownell had secured real salt mackerel and there was no disputing that the salt had not lost its savor—lovers of salt mackerel had the genuine delicacy and there were fish of nine other varieties and Ex-Congress J. D. Post, assisted by Mr. Ed. Fite and Horace Ireland showed expert skill in their preparation and their services will be in demand from now on.

It was all very jolly and informal—the kind of "on the spur of the moment" affair that whets the appetite for more.

Participating with the host were Mayor V. J. Dahl, Messrs. Post, Reid, Duff, Fite, C. P. Ballard, Tipton, M. E. Hitchcock, Ireland and Wilkin.

Shady Grove School children will long remember the delightful affair Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Binigar, the occasion the eleventh birthday of the son, Herbert.

The popular lad was called home from school early and was followed at the closing period by teacher and school mates, who descended upon him with a shower of congratulations, taking him completely by surprise.

Games of all kinds were enjoyed during a merry afternoon and tempting refreshments served.

The children had such a good time that they hopefully anticipate for the young host many future birthday celebrations.

Mrs. Robert Murphy pleasureably entertained eight girl friends at a six o'clock dinner of two courses, Tuesday evening at her home on Harrison street.

After the merry dinner hour the guests enjoyed dancing and music and remained over night for a jolly slumber party.

Included in the party were Misses Jessie West, Leona Cheek, Beulah Boncutter, Mac Barnes, Ruth McLean, Georgiana Snyder and Blanche Rooks.

Mrs. Murphy's mother, Mrs. Snyder assisted in the hospitalities.

Mrs. F. G. Carpenter attended a Centenary meeting at the Frankfort M. E. Church Tuesday evening. It was in the nature of a "Get-together Meeting," for the Frankfort Circuit, and was very successful with 400 present.

The men had entire charge of the program and the supper which followed. Mrs. Carpenter, whose ability as a speaker in the interests of the Centenary is being recognized by other churches was one of the speakers of the evening. Her talks are always well presented, full of information and very concise.

The Bloomingburg High School of the class of 1919 sent out invitations, Wednesday to the Commencement Exercises to be held in the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday evening April twenty-ninth at eight o'clock.

Washington, April 23.—Postmaster General Burleson announced today he had issued the following instructions to the wire operating board:

"Direct the management of all telegraph systems to suspend insofar as messages referring to the Postmaster General are concerned, their rules prohibiting transmission of messages containing libelous matter."

It was stated this order was issued as soon as attention was called to refusal of the night manager of the Post System at New York to transmit certain messages filed by the New York World News Bureau on the ground they were libelous. The messages consisted of an article relating to the Postmaster General and his administration of the wire system.

The New York World today published an extended article regarding the holding up of their dispatches.

New York, April 23.—The government began in the Federal court here today argument on its motion to dismiss the suit brought by the Jacob Hoffman Brewing Company to restrain the United States authorities from interfering with its production of beer of 2 3/4 percent alcoholic content, forbidden by internal revenue rulings interpreting the food conservation regulations and the war-time prohibition act.

After Judge Handsha permitted the anti-Saloon League to file a brief as a "friend of the court," counsel for the brewers neither consenting or objecting. United States District Attorney Caffey started an all day discussion of court decisions intending to show the Federal District Court is without jurisdiction to enjoin a district attorney from prosecuting a violator of the law.

GRADE CARNIVAL WAS BIG SUCCESS

The Grade Carnival at Central Tuesday night proved a great success with between six and seven hundred people crowding the rooms to capacity and the interest manifested delighting both teachers and pupils alike.

The Carnival was given by the third, fourth and fifth grades, under the teachers: Mrs. C. W. Moore, Miss Lena Fultz, Miss Edith Blackman, Miss Nina French and Misses Bell, Palmer and Hoy of the lower grades of Central lending assistance.

The Carnival idea was effectively carried out in a variety of artistically gotten up booths and bazaars, and a feature of surpassing interest was the exhibit of the children's work during the past year—the regular school work in map drawing, art and so forth.

The art exhibit, done entirely under the direction of the grade teachers, there being at present no art teacher, was highly creditable and called forth generous praise.

Under the direction of Miss Fultz a delightful program was put on.

The special feature was "The Passing Show," in which thirty children, splendidly trained took part, the characters running the gamut of the historical and famous from the Red Men of the Virgin Forest to the Boy Scout and Red Cross nurse of today.

The children were very good in all the impersonations, for which they were effectively costumed and formed a line of march.

The exceedingly clever impersonation of Clifford Clemmens as Superintendent McClain was the big hit of the show, the children freely venting their enjoyment of the take-off of the popular superintendent.

Each room contributed a share of the stars on the program.

The booths were liberally patronized—Miss Hoy in charge of the ice cream, Mrs. Moore and Miss Fultz of the candy; Misses Blackman and Bell of fishpond; Miss Palmer, popcorn and peanut and Miss French of the "Swat the Kaiser" booth, where the fun waxed hilarious.

Over $50 was cleared and these grades are now planning for a big sale at the Johnson Auto Sales room next week.

The money is being raised to provide a complete teacher's rest room at Central—a room long needed.

REPORTS HESSIAN
FLY BY MILLIONS

Mr. John Hutchinson, residing near the Cisco centralized school building, Wednesday afternoon reported that the much dreaded Hessian fly had appeared by millions in his wheat, and he feared that the pest would seriously damage the crop.

His attention was attracted by swarms of the flies over the wheat field, and upon examination he pronounced the flies the real Hessian fly.

This is the first fly or other wheat pest reported so far this season.

TEXAS BUILDERS
WORK FULL TIME

(By Associated Press)

Beaumont Texas, April 23.—Texas shipbuilders believed there will be a market for all the vessels they can turn out and will continue operations regardless of the Emergency Fleet Corporation order cancelling contracts for boats on which work had not started. At the shipyards here and in Orange no men have been discharged since January 1, and the ways show as great activity as in war time. Officials of many yards say that with the revival of the American merchant marine they expect to keep up capacity operation indefinitely.

The demand for houses for shipyard workers has shown virtually no decrease since the war ended.

"What If Your Spark Should Fail?"

If the spark fails there's nothing to do but phone for help. Worse than the expense is the annoyance—the loss of time—both easily avoidable.

We can show you how to get at the facts and avoid the danger of a "dead" engine and a tow back home.

In the Still Better Willard with Threaded Rubber Insulation there's more starting capacity, more sparking ability and better lighting than ever before and besides that it is the only battery with the "Bone Dry" principle that is your absolute assurance of getting a battery as new as the day it left the factory. Let us tell you about it.

There's A Neat Looking Fence

How often we hear this expression used, especially when driving along the public highways of our beautiful country and the posts come in for a goodly share of the praise or the negative criticism as the case may be; but putting aside this topic of appearance, strength and most important durability come next. Our staple driving concrete posts manufactured right here in your own home town represent a perfect combination of these features. A careful study of facts will readily convince you that the light flimsy steel post is practically a post of the past. Tamarack in the same line, locust scarce, however we are able yet quite often to get good locust, but a careful survey will convince you that the STAPLE DRIVING CONCRETE POST is the logical fence post to buy.

SOME INVENTION

It is reported from New York, and we have no reason to doubt it, that a machine has been invented to manufacture milk, real milk, as high in food value as cow's milk. Well, that's some invention. Perhaps some day we will hear of an invention eliminating the necessity for washing clothes—but until that day comes it's hard to beat Larrimer's Laundry for clothes washing.

In the event that Matsuda wins this bout he will be possessor of the Richard R. Fox belt, and the welterweight championship.

Matsuda has posted $200 against the Fox belt which he still holds if he wins the belt.

The winner takes 75 percent and the loser 25 percent of the total receipts.

The preliminary bout is also said to be a headliner. Geo. Pappas, of Toledo, who wrestled Matsuda some time ago will meet Walter Hamilton of Columbus. Pappas agrees to beat Hamilton two falls in 30 minutes.

Matchmaker Saylor promises adequate and comfortable seating capacity for the large crowd which will be on hand to see the matches. The show will start promptly at 8:15.

ary, and of a very instructive nature. The display is nothing more or less than cotton in its raw state, and the various products made from the refuse and cotton seed.

First is shown the raw cotton, then cotton taken from the ginning process; cotton seed and lint; cotton seed hulls, the seed crushed and oil derived from the seed; cotton-seed cake and finally a food for live stock produced from the prepared cake.

SAW EMPLACEMENT OF SUPER-CANNON DESCRIBES SCENE

Private Morris E. Ferguson, of Van Wert, Ohio, recently returned from overseas and who visited his brother, Rev. L. R. Ferguson, pastor of the First Baptist Church in this city, first of the week, had the good fortune to visit one of the emplacements of the German super-cannon that threw shells into Paris from a distance of some 76 miles.

Private Ferguson states that while the gun itself had been removed, thus preserving the German secret, that the emplacement, ramrod, some of the shells and other evidence of the monster, still remained.

The ramrod, or cleaning rod, was in three sections, and each section about 22 feet in length, giving a very definite indication of the length of the super-gun.

The emplacement proper was a huge mass of concrete and steel and the steel balls used for bearings in the emplacement were approximately 18 inches in diameter, and arranged similarly to those in any set of bearings of that nature.

Shells left on the scene were somewhat over two feet in length and of a somewhat different appearance from the ordinary shell.

Private Ferguson saw fighting on four fronts, and was five days in the midst of heavy fighting in the Aronne forest.
